WHAT DO YOU VALUE MOST ABOUT THIS HOLIDAY

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO YOU?

NOT THE TASKS, WHAT IS THE EXPERIENCE

4

- What do you want the focus to be?
 - There is a Palm Sunday and a Good Friday in each of us, the desire to praise and the desire to destroy.
- What is Easter about?
- The Never-Ending Story
 - You're being asked to let go of what is comfortable, may not even be able to see where your journey of transformation is going.
 - That's what the Easter journey is about – surrendering and being transformed.
- Differing Accounts of Resurrection Story – so too it is for us
- Six Word Memoir - what's the ONE thing you want them to remember
 - Because of you, I am more me
 - Greatest Love Story Ever Told
 - I fast on _____ I feast on _____

Ritual as a way of life

“During times of change, human beings naturally gravitate to ritual, ceremony, prayers and realms of the sacred to support significant transitions and rites of passage.”

Angeles Arrien

Mapping the energy of ritual

7

SEPARATION: Start of the ceremony, where what has been up to this point is left behind. It signifies that something new is about to enter

TRANSFORMATION: Where release and renewal occur, where change takes place.
BODY OF THE CEREMONY

INCORPORATION: The return back, reintroduced back into the community with new way of thinking, new "giveaway."
